THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK

In South Carolina and This Vicinity. Cotton Acreage.

Dr. John A. Vann, a prominent resident of Ridgeway, S. C., was seen yesterday by a Virginian reporter and was told that business in South Carolina was picking up in all kinds of trade and the prospects for a good season are bright. Planting operations are about ten days behind. The cotton acreage would be from 16 to 25 per cent. less than last year. Cotton in Piedmont belt is selling at 6 1/2c per pound. The small grain crop is almost entirely ruined. In speaking of Norfolk and this vicinity Dr. Vann was loud in his praises of the progressiveness of Norfolk and thinks that during the next five years he will make more headway than in the past ten. He visits Norfolk every year and is in a better position to note improvements than a resident.

A Promising Outlook for a Good Season at the White Sulphur.

Mr. Thos. J. Glover gives us the information that he has every reason to anticipate a brilliant season at the "White" this year. Mr. Glover wishes it understood that notwithstanding the improvements being made and the efforts he will make to have everything first class and up to date, there will be no advance in prices. The same prices as given under the former management will prevail this season. Among the new features of entertainment for the coming season are an increased number of competent musicians, new golf links and tennis courts. The "White" will open June 15th. Correspondence as to terms, locations, etc., addressed to Messrs. Babcock & Glover, proprietors, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., will receive prompt attention. ap25-2t

AMUSEMENTS.

"The Isle of Champagne."—The opening of the box office at the Academy of Music yesterday morning for the advance sale of seats for the Seabrooke Opera Company, which appears there next Monday, the 29th, has met with a hearty response on the part of all lovers of bright and sparkling music, and demonstrates that there is an increased popularity for "The Isle of Champagne."

This is the last performance of the theatrical season in Norfolk, and no better attraction could have been chosen to end a very successful season.

Started in Washington.

Mr. William H. Callahan, a well-known young citizen of Norfolk, son of Mr. John Callahan, general manager of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, was married in Washington Wednesday afternoon to Miss Agnes Buckley, a popular young lady of that city. Callahan, on Duke street.

THE POLICE COMMISSIONERS

Will Adopt Regulations for the Force.

RESIDENTS ORDERED TO MOVE

Capt. Bolton Presided Yesterday. Officer Eastwood to be Reimbursed. The Officers Want Recreation. Given Seven Days With Pay.

The Board of Police Commissioners held a meeting yesterday afternoon. In the absence of Mayor Pettit Capt. Bolton presided. A resolution was adopted granting seven days' leave of absence to each officer with pay. Only two officers can be absent at the time. Detective Eastwood asked that $10 be refunded him, which was used in detecting violations of the law. The Commissioners approved the request and directed the Mayor to pay the amount out of any funds that might be in his hands.

The secretary was directed to get together all important resolutions adopted by the Board for the government of the force, and report them to the next meeting, when it is proposed to commence formulating new rules for the force.

A communication was received from the Chief saying he had notified certain persons residing on Chapel and Cove streets to seek residences elsewhere.

The Chief was directed to notify the booksters in the market that the police officer heretofore on duty there would be withdrawn on Sunday, and that they would have to employ a man to protect their property.

It was decided to hereafter hold semi-monthly meetings.

"Nana."

The famous and much talked of "Nana," the masterpiece of the great Russian artist, Suchorovsky, is still attracting great crowds to 39 Commercial Place, where the picture is being exhibited. It would be impossible to add anything to the praise that has been bestowed upon this wonderful painting; wherever it has been exhibited, but it is perfectly safe to say that no one ever gazed upon it without being astonished at its exquisite beauty and realism. Even to one who has seen some of the best works of art to be seen in this country, "Nana" comes like a revelation in the realistic school. It is not merely the nude figure, but the surroundings, and the picture as a whole that impress one with the sense of realism. The silk draperies seem to stand out in rich folds that could be crushed and flattened with a touch, while the round curves of the exquisitely modelled form seem to shroudly deny that they are mere shadows of dainty coloring deftly wrought out by a master hand upon the flat canvas. Such strength combined with exquisite finish and coloring cannot but astonish even the most experienced art critic.
